Commodore George Brown, now in command of the Pacific station, will upon being relieved by Commodore Skerrett be placed upon waiting orders until there is a vacant shore assignment commensurate with his rank. It is understood that he is desirous to again take charge of the Norfolk navy yard, and as the term of Commodore Weaver, the present commandant, will expire January 10 it is possible his wish will be gratified.

Speculation is already rife among naval officers as to who will next command the Washing-ton yard, and as the command is an important one, including, as it does, the large ordnance shops, it is thought that an officer of marked abilities in that line of work will be chosen. Capt. Howell, now on duty at the navy yard, is said to have the best duty at the navy yard, is said to have the best chance for the place. No confirmation can be had at the Navy Department of the reported intention of Commodore Folger to relinquish his duties as chief of ordnance, but it is said on good authority that after January 1 he will be granted a year's leave of absence and that Capt. Sampson, now in charge of the ordnance shops, will be his successor.

The gripman of he should be honored by the offer of one it is a west-bound train saw it and brought his cars extremely doubtful that Ohio will receive cabinet position at all. That is the way prominent democrats here view the situation. Except Gov. Campbell the party in this state does not contain any attractive cabinet material, and most of those who might be thought of in that connection were not only strong anti-Cleveland men before the Chicago convention, but are open to the charge of misrepresenting the democracy in that con-vention and voting against the unmistakably expressed wish of the party. Young Allen W. Thurman is not of this class, but he would be all the conlowing record of the operations of the free,de-livery system at this place for the month of November: Delivered Registered letters, 17; the venerable ex-Senator, is too old and infirm

Miss Annie Jones, sister the Cleveland men in this state of feeling, the was the cause of his arrest. He took the paper from the door of house No. 1315 Massachusetts avenue northwest yesterday afternoon and Harry Coggins, the regular carrier on that route, who was watching for him, caused his arrest. The stolen paper was taken from beneath the colored boy's coat, and although The storehouse and stock of goods of Mr. C. at-large to Chicago were anti-Cleveland. He was able to do all this without exciting suspicion on the part of the Cleveland men, for the reason that he had not declared himself as an anti-Cleveland man.

Chicago, three of whom—Sonator Brice, L. T. Neal and Robert Blee were anti-Cleveland men and nominated a ticket every candidate Christ Episcopal Church, at this place, was of which was dictated by the Cincinnati Enquirer, the avowed organ in the state of the anti-Cleveland democrats.
The rank and file of the party was still more chagrined when the Chio delegation at Chi-cago cast 16 votes for Boies, 5 for Carlisle, 6 for Hill, 5 for Gorman and only 14 for Cleveland. Not a single delegate had been instructed to vote for any one but Cleveland. A number were reinstructed, it is true, but that was because it was deemed needless and inexpedient in view of the Cleveland-Hill contest that was springing up all around.

There was nothing in what the Ohio delegation did at Chicago that the Ohio democracy could feel proud of and young Allen Thurman could only be thankful that his pet idea that Ohio should adopt the unit rule was not adopted, as in that case Cleveland would not have secured a single vote from this state, and looking back from this point of view the solid it seems, would have been given to Senator Hill, in all probability, by that rule.

In view of these things it is believed here that the Ohio democracy will not receive large recognition at the hands of Mr. Cleveland, un-less he should do as Mr. Lincoln did—choose for his immediate advisers some of his most bitter enemies in the party-and that at all events Senator Brice will not have very great power in the matter of the distribution of fed
